82. Amendments in the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations, 2000 under clause 12(1)(2), (3) & (4) notified in the Gazette of India on 24th July, 2009.

Read: the matter with regard to amendments in the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations, 2000 under clause 12(1)(2), (3) & (4) notified in the Gazette of India on 24th July, 2009.

The Postgraduate Committee observed that the Government of India had taken a policy decision for enforcement of reservation for OBC Category to the extent of 27% in all the Government Institutions in the country including the institutions of higher learning. The Government of India had also decided, in principle, that with a view to ensure that the number of seats available to general category candidates should not get reduced and seats required for implementation of reservation of OBC category should be created over a period of three years in a phased manner. The Medical Council of India had also submitted certain constructive proposals for facilitating this avowed objective sought to be achieved through Government policy and while ensuring that there is no compromise to the standards to be maintained in imparting the medical education. One of such proposal was sent to the office of the Hon’ble Prime alongwith MCI communication dt. 10.09.08.

In the same direction, the MCI had specifically sent more proposals for further rationalizing the minimum norms in relation to infrastructure teaching and other facilities prescribed by it for imparting postgraduate medical education. These constructive suggestions which has the potential of creation of approximately 5,000 additional PG seats in the Government medical colleges / institutions, had been submitted to the Ministry of Health, Govt. of India and which has been granted approval. The consequential statutory notifications for implementation of these decisions of the MCI approved by the Govt. of India have also been published in the official gazette in 21.07.09.

The Council has notified following amendments in the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations, 2000 under clause 12(1)(2), (3) & (4) which was published in the Gazette of India on 24th July, 2009:-

"Clause 12(1)(2) & (3) under the heading number of postgraduate students to be admitted shall be substituted as under:-

- 1. The ratio of recognized postgraduate teacher to the number of students to be admitted for the degree course where diploma is not prescribed shall be 1:2 for a Professor and 1:1 for other cadres in each unit per year subject to a maximum of 4 PG seats for the degree per unit per academic year provided a complement of 10 teaching beds is added to the prescribed bed strength of 30 for the unit for broad specialities.*
- 2. The ratio of recognized postgraduate teacher to the number of students to be admitted for the degree course in broad specialities where diploma is prescribed shall be 1:2 for a Professor and 1:1 for other cadres in each unit per year subject to a maximum of 4 PG seats including diploma per unit per academic year provided a complement of 10 teaching beds is added to the prescribed bed strength of 30 for the unit.*
- 3. The requirement of units and beds shall not apply in the case of Postgraduate degree or diploma courses in Basic and para-clinical departments.*

Provided that against the very same units, teaching personnel and infrastructure, no other postgraduate courses under any other streams like National Board of Examinations, College of Physicians & Surgeons etc. are permitted."

Clause 12 (4) shall be substituted as under:-

"1. The ratio of PG teacher to the number of students to be admitted for super specialities course shall be 1:2 for Professor/Assoc. Professor and 1:1 for remaining cadre in each unit per year subject to a maximum of 4 PG seats for the course per unit per academic year provided the complement of 10 teaching beds per seat is added to the prescribed bed strength of 20 for the unit."

Provided that against the very same units, teaching personnel and infrastructure, no other postgraduate courses under any other streams like National Board of Examinations, College of Physicians & Surgeons etc. are permitted."

This notification has not only been put on the website of the MCI but the copy of this notification dt. 21.07.09 have also been sent by the MCI to all the Govt. medical colleges in the states and the union territories.

In this regard and specifically having regard to the fact that all the Govt. medical colleges / institutions deserve to take immediate necessary action in this direction, it would also deserve to emphasise that there is already in place an earlier notification dt. 15.03.05 making a suitable provision in the Post Graduate Medical Education permitting only the Govt. medical colleges / institutions to treat, to the required extent alone, the consultants working in the government hospitals to be given the status / nomenclature of medical teachers towards the requirement of minimum faculty for conducting any PG medical course. In other words, by the notification dt. 15.03.05 creating a suitable modification in the PG Medical Education Regulation 2000 permits the Govt. medical colleges / institutions to consider the required number of consultants i.e. for the minimum requirement of PG faculty members in relation to the PG courses conducted by them as per the regulations.

All these Govt. medical colleges / institutions are now required to submit their respective applications under the amended regulations immediately for fixation of the permissible annual admission capacity for each of its PG medical course being run by them respectively. The submission of the required applications in accordance with the amended provisions of the regulations through the notification dt. 21.07.09 will thereafter permit the MCI to process all those applications and then to coordinate with the Ministry of Health, Govt. of India for immediately fixing the permissible annual intake for each of the PG medical course in all these government medical colleges/institutions and which, as of today, is expected to bring into existence almost 5,000 additional PG seats.

It was further observed that a letter dated 15.09.2009 has been sent by the office of the Council to the Health Secretaries of all the States with the request to direct the Deans/Principals to send the information as regards availability of Professors in the subjects of broad specialities and availability of Professors & Associate Professors in respect of super-specialities. The copy of the letter was also marked to the DME's of all the States and Secretary to the Govt. of India, MOHFW for information and necessary action.

After due deliberations, the Postgraduate Committee ratified the action taken by the office as mentioned above and further decided that the matter of increasing postgraduate seats in the government medical colleges w.e.f. academic year 2010-11 be taken up in earnest for ensuring that all existing Govt. medical colleges / institutions are mobilized for immediate submission of the information by them for each of their PG medical course and upon submission of such information by the said Govt. institutes, for fixation of the sanctioned annual intake in such Government/Municipal Corporation/University institutes in terms of the latest notification dt. 21.07.09 provided that the courses are recognized by the Council and continue to be recognized and the Council has not recommended to the Central Govt. for withdrawal of recognition u/s 19 of the IMC Act, 1956 or has not issued any show cause notice to the institute for recommending withdrawal of recognition and further provided that so far as preclinical and paraclinical subjects are concerned, the number of seats in courses in these subjects may be recommended as per Postgraduate Medical Education (Amendment) Regulations, 2009 at the starting of the courses also.

83. Rationalization of grant of teaching designation to the specialists working in Govt. Hospitals.

Read: Rationalization of grant of teaching designation to the specialists working in Govt. Hospital.

(ii) In regulation 11.2 relating to 'Minimum requirement for a post graduate institution', after clause (b), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:-

(c) An institution eligible to start postgraduate course(s) under sub-regulation (1A) of regulation 8 may enter into a comprehensive Memorandum of Understanding with an ongoing recognized medical college, located within a reasonable distance from it as would not disrupt the smooth running of the said course(s), for the purpose of availing the facilities of the basic medical sciences departments of the college concerned; or it shall create the requisite facilities in its own set-up as per the guidelines indicated in Appendix-III. In addition, such an institution shall set up full-fledged departments of Pathology, Biochemistry, Microbiology and Radiology".

This was primarily provided with a view to facilitate the conduct of the PG Medical Education in Govt. medical colleges/institutions for augmentation of the capacity in the PG medical seats in the Govt. medical colleges/institutions. In terms of the Clause 11 of the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations, 2000 as amended on 15.03.05, it had become possible for all the Govt. medical colleges/institutions to consider and treat a few of their consultants as PG medical teachers towards fulfillment of the immediate requirement of PG medical faculty for the number of seats sanctioned as annual intake in each of the PG medical teachers disciplines in those Govt. medical colleges/institutions. It is emphasized that this provision had been made only for the Govt. medical colleges/institutions and also only to the extent of fulfillment of the regulations for minimum required PG medical faculty for the sanctioned number of PG seats only.

The provision of Regulation 11.1 of the Postgraduate Medical Education Regulations, 2000 provide that every clinical department or its unit for the training of PG medical seats shall have a minimum of three full time faculty members belonging to the concerned discipline out of whom one shall be a Professor, one Associate Professor/Reader and one Assistant Professor/Lecturer possessing the prescribed medical qualification.

Perusal of the records submitted at the time of inspection of various postgraduate medical institutions, it has been observed that the status of Postgraduate medical teachers are given indiscriminately to all the consultants working in such institutions and not restricted to the number of teachers required commensurate with the permitted annual intake.

After due deliberation the Postgraduate Committee was of the opinion that the provision of this notification of the MCI dt.15.03.05 has been misused by certain entities by conferring the status of PG medical teachers i.e. status of Professor, Addl. Professor, Associate Professor, Asstt. Professor, indiscriminately upon all consultants working in the Govt. hospitals/institutions. In other words, when a particular Govt. Hospital/institution had required only three consultants to be given the nomenclature of PG medical teachers it was observed that every consultant in that Govt. Hospital had been given the status of PG medical teacher thereby frustrating and violating the objective sought to be achieved under the notification dt.15.03.05 issued by the MCI.

On account of the above mentioned indiscriminate misutilisation of the provision of the notification dt.15.03.05, this notification has been put under challenge in the court of law and its validity is being questioned by an association of PG medical teachers. It has, thus, become necessary that the Council recommends to the Ministry of Health, Govt. of India for grant of approval for publication of a clarificatory notification whereby and whereunder – in certain and unequivocal terms, the Council to clarify that the provisions of the notification dt.15.03.05 would be used for conferment of the nomenclature/status of PG medical teachers only to those many number of consultants in any Govt. Hospital/institution so as to fulfill the minimum requirement for imparting PG medical education to the sanctioned annual intake for the Govt. Hospital/institution in every PG medical discipline.

The minutes of this item were read out and confirmed in the meeting itself and it was decided that the decision be sent to the members of the General Body of the Council by circulation immediately for consideration and sending their decision within 10 days.

The office of the Council has received a query that whether bed strength in a unit has to be increased to 40 even in those cases wherein the number of postgraduate seats in a unit, even after allocation in the ratio 1:2 for Professor does not result in more than 3 seats in that unit.

The Postgraduate Committee after due and detailed deliberations; decided that the additional complement of 10 beds in the unit is to be made applicable only when the allocation by higher teacher student ratio 1:2 results in awarding 4 postgraduate seats in degree and diploma courses in the unit, further clarifying that the strength of 30 beds per unit as prescribed in the present Regulations will be considered adequate upto total 3 postgraduate seats in degree/diploma courses.

The minutes of this item were read out and confirmed in the meeting itself and it was decided that the decision be sent to the members of the General Body of the Council by circulation immediately for consideration and sending their decision within 10 days.

The office of the Council has received a query that whether bed strength in a unit has to be increased to 40 even in those cases wherein the number of postgraduate seats in a unit, even after allocation in the ratio 1:2 for Professor does not result in more than 2 seats in that unit.

The Postgraduate Committee after due and detailed deliberations; decided that the additional complement of 10 beds per seat in the unit is to be made applicable only when the allocation by higher teacher student ratio 1:2 results in awarding 3 or more postgraduate seats in D.M./M.Ch. courses in the unit, further clarifying that the strength of 20 beds per unit as prescribed in the present Regulations will be considered adequate upto total 2 postgraduate seats in D.M./M.Ch. courses.

The minutes of this item were read out and confirmed in the meeting itself and it was decided that the decision be sent to the members of the General Body of the Council by circulation immediately for consideration and sending their decision within 10 days.
